

July 14-2013: in Bobbio Pellice the 38th Tre Rifugi Val Pellice

Sunday July 14-2013. On the other side of the Alps 224 years from the “storming of the Bastille” are celebrated, event that marked the beginning of the end of the “Ancien Régime”.

On the same date, the Cai Uget Val Pellice and Bobbio Pellice Municipality, more prosaically, will repropose for the 38th time the “Tre Rifugi Val Pellice” in the more recent version, revolutionary too, that led the event in the centre of the alpine village.

The success of the 2012 edition suggested to the organizational staff to continue on the same way, proposing the same menu, i.e. two routes of 32 and 52 Km in the “Trail” formula.

There will be some new elements, in order to improve the few problematic aspects highlighted in the passed edition.

Soon there will be the meeting to define in details the programme both technical and logistic organizational.

At the moment the confirmation of the event and the scheduled date: Sunday July 14-2013.

...Meanwhile, the Barant Refuge has been equipped with the aqueduct with an ingenious technical intervention and the track that goes down to the Jervis Refuge has been opened up again.

We remind that the DVDs with pictures and video of the 2012 edition are on sale at Fassi Computer in Cavour (0121/600270 – e-mail fassi@fassi.it).

The invitation to all the fans is to follow the development of the situation on the web site www.3rifugivalpellice.it, that will be constantly updated.

Furthermore, judgements, comments and requests from all the fans will be appreciated. Please write us to info@3rifugivalpellice.it

The Organizational Committee.