

IT'S TIME FOR "TRE RIFUGI VAL PELLICE"

Till Sunday June 16-2013 entries at reduced cost (€30)

The first part of the season witnessed the realization of various events of Mountain Running, in various formulas, at low and medium altitudes.

As soon as the high mountain paths are clean from the snow the moment of "Tre Rifugi Val Pellice" arrives, punctual as every year.

The events queen of the competitions of long distance on the mountains this year on July 14 is still with double formula: Tre Rifugi Trail and Trail degli Alpeggi with different routes and altitudes.

After the resounding success of the last year, the start and finishing lines are confirmed in Bobbio Pellice, but there's a news: one only start at 7.00 a.m.

The technical details are under preparation, but also the various local associations are in activity to receive in the best way all those who will come in Val Pellice for the sport event. Side events mainly during the days preceding the race are getting prepared.

The best specialists of the mountain running will come in Val Pellice. The technical goal is, above all, the challenge to Paolo Bert, winner of 10 editions of the last 11.

It's a pleasure the presence of Sicilian athletes, most of all women, who aim at the quality with Lara La Pera, who won this year the supermarathon of Etna (from 0 to 3000 m. above the sea level) and the ecomarathon of the Madonie.

There's time till Sunday June 16-2013 to enter at the reduced cost of € 30.00. Then, the cost will pass to € 40.00 till the deadline of the entries, i.e. Thursday July 11-2013 at 12.00 p.m.

All the details on the web site www.3rifugivalpellice.it